

Editor's Introduction

Volume 25, 2024-2025

Every year, Juniata Voices publishes a selection of the invited speakers, Faculty speakers, and undergraduate speakers at Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania. This volume includes texts from the 2024-2025 academic year that represent a range of voices. Some of the talks are presented much as they were delivered in person; others are edited to resemble more traditional academic papers. We are thrilled to have produced this 25th volume of the effort that began years ago to produce a Juniata journal. Thanks are especially due to the intrepid Jim Tuten, who has been with Juniata Voices since the 2002 volume and who still holds the post of Acquisitions Editor. Jim's efforts have allowed us to gain many insightful talks for our volumes.

I want to thank everyone whose efforts contributed to this volume. As always, Juniata Voices relies on the support of the Provost's Office: Lauren Bowen and Marissa Fouse. Tracy White provided excellent administrative help. Maddie Seipp '25 and Isabel Shelatz '27 served as our Juniata Associates. In that role, they recorded and transcribed talks and assisted with other editorial tasks. The dedicated and talented members of the editorial board provided thoughtful editing and cleaning up. Any remaining errors fall to me. As always, it is a pleasure to work with this dedicated and conscientious team.
